

JD For MD/MV

MD/MV group does assay method development and validation for various drug and their metabolites in biological fluids like plasma serum or urine by using LC/MS/MS. During method validation precision, accuracy, stability of drug/metabolite in biological fluid as well as after extraction is evaluated. The validated methods are then followed for the analysis of subject samples analysis for doing bioequivalence study.